Hannah Pollack is the founder and CEO of Nightingale Ice Cream, a rapidly growing, Richmond-based company renowned for its premium ice cream sandwiches. A Richmond native and Marine Corps veteran, Hannah attributes her sharp attention to detail and discipline to her military background. Her culinary journey began in the kitchen of the nowclosed Greenleaf Pool Hall, where she crafted the very first Nightingale Ice Cream Sandwich. Driven by a passion for innovative desserts and a dedication to quality, Hannah has redefined the ice cream experience with unique, handcrafted flavors that captivate customers nationwide. Under her visionary leadership, Nightingale Ice Cream has emerged as a leading brand in the premium dessert industry. When not dreaming up her next iconic dessert, she spends time with her three beloved dogs and her Belgian chef husband, Xavier.
